Six Men and Six Women To Hear Evidence in Trial of David L. Lawrence

COLEGROVE ON STAND

Commonwealth Witnesses Expected To Follow Colegrove On Stand

By Raymond Wilcove
I. N. Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, Nov. 14.—(INS)—The prosecution was prepared to open its case before a jury to six men and six women today in the trial of David L. Lawrence, Democratic State chairman and former secretary of the commonwealth.

Nine Republicans and three Democrats comprised the jury which will try the ex-cabinet officer of the Earle administration on charges of statutory blackmail, conspiracy and violation of the election laws.

Lawrence's trial, third of a series resulting from a Grand Jury investigation into so-called graft and corruption traced to the Earle administration, began in Dauphin County court-house yesterday with selection of the jury.

Arthur Colegrove, former state secretary of property and supplies, was expected to be the first witness for the commonwealth.

Commonwealth witnesses expected to follow Colegrove to the stand included former Attorney General Charles J. Margiotti, whose charges highlighted the bitter Democratic primary campaign of 1938; H. H. Temple, ex-highways engineer who was acquitted earlier on charges of conspiring to monopolize the state's highway bonding business in Western Pennsylvania; E. A. Griffith, former chief of the Highway Department in Erie County; and Miss Alice Priddy, secretary to Lawrence.

The accusations leveled against Lawrence grew out of the Erie "gravel scandal" of 1936 and 1937, in which Colegrove figured as a witness before the Grand Jury and before the special legislative investigating committee last year.

Carried Three Coins During Army Service

(By "The Stroller")
"That reminds me!" exclaimed Harry Goheen, when he read "The Stroller" article, Saturday, relative to the half-dollar carried throughout the World War by a Hulmeville veteran, and retained to this day, "I have some centavos which lodged in my pocket during the war period."

He proceeded to produce three silver pieces, fifty centavos, worth approximately 25 cents in United States money, also pieces worth 10 and 20 centavos. The three were secured by Mr. Goheen, a resident of 232 Roosevelt street, in the Philippine Islands, when he was stationed there with Company 9, U. S. Coast Artillery. He had been located there with that company since 1914, and the three pieces bear the dates 1917, the final year of issue for them, before paper money was resorted to in the Philippines due to silver shortage. That, likewise, was the year the United States entered the war. At the time of his enlistment, Mr. Goheen was a resident of Hulmeville, he and two other young men from that borough, Messrs. Korimsak and Harrison, enlisting at the same time.

British Lose Four Boats

London, Nov. 14.—Naval warfare flared off England's coast today when a destroyer, two British freighters and a trawler went down one after the other after striking mines or running afoul of enemy submarines.

The destroyer was the first to be lost by the British since the war began. The number of casualties was not known by the British admiralty except that "more than 70 survivors" had been picked up.

A German mine sent the destroyer to the bottom, but a Nazi U-boat was responsible for sinking the small trawler Cresswell off the Scottish coast, with the loss of six of her crew.

The freighter Matra sank after an explosion in the North Sea, and another unidentified merchant ship which went down only an hour after the destroyer sank.

Two men were killed and 22 injured in the Matra. A life boat putting out from shore rescued the captain, a sailor, 10 officers and 40 lascars, who comprised the crew.

The 70 survivors landed from the war destroyer, were rescued by tugs and other small vessels.

At about the same time a destroyer landed at an unnamed northern British port 23 survivors of a Norwegian steamer which sank in the North Sea.

Hitler Rejects Mediation Offer

Berlin, Nov. 14.—Reichsfuehrer Hitler today politely rejected the offer of mediation made by Queen Wilhelmina and King Leopold on the grounds that Great Britain and France have openly announced their determination to dismember and destroy the greater Reich. The Fuehrer's reply was handed to the Belgian and Dutch ministers in Berlin at noon. Authentic quarters said that it followed the line of this statement by a government spokesman yesterday:

"The British and French reply (to the mediation offer) represents a challenge to the German nation—they reveal that Britain's war aim is destruction of the Reich. The allies have deliberately sabotaged the latest peace move, while trying to throw a smoke screen around England's war guilt." Regardless of further attempts by neutral nations to restore peace in Europe, it is now understood that Hitler has made up his mind that the only solution lies in "war to the hilt."

The organization today has two rooms in the hospital, one in memory of Harriet Naylor, who for many years was president, and the Morrisville room. The auxiliary furnishes both rooms and this past year equipped and furnished a nursery on the first floor of the hospital.

The report recently released showed that a charity case mother and baby were given hospitalization and medical care. Numerous other cases were also cared for. Christmas donations, card parties, luncheons, roast beef supper, sale of corn meal mixture and other activities formed part of the work the past year.

Declaring that the six fundamental social needs of education are control of the basic skills and tools—reading, writing and arithmetic—possession of understanding, efficient methods of thinking, development of desirable personality traits, health and techniques for purposeful leisure time activities, Dr. Lyle S. Hance, of the Winston Educational Department, speaking at a meeting of the Doylestown Parent-Teacher Association, said: "Only one, the first one, deals with the three R's, and the rest have to do with emotional attitudes which make up a well adjusted personality."

Speaking on "Are the schools meeting the social needs of the individual?" Dr. Hance asserted that 13 per cent. of the children are educated on two per cent. of the income. He described the school as a filling station which fills up pupils with academic subjects and then drives them out full.

He warned parents about the importance of building up personality traits which are undesirable in their children. "Too often parents educate their children when they come home from school."

Dr. Hance advocated reorganizing the history and civics courses and

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

By FRANK R. KENT

"Distributed by McNaught Syndicate, Inc."

Dangerous Power

Washington, Nov. 13. IT is the testimony of the practical men who conduct campaigns in States and cities, who know the ward and precinct game and are under no illusion as to how the great rancid American electorate is influenced, that money plays a more important part in politics today than ever before in American history.

ANY candid political manager will agree about that. They know that there are more corrupt practices Acts upon the statute books in state and nation than ever before; and that there are State and Federal laws compelling detailed statements (with names) under oath of all moneys received and paid out. But they also know that there are loopholes in these laws and that they are violated with almost the same impunity and frequency as the late unlamented Volstead Act.

THIS being the case, added interest is given recent publication that the United Mine Workers (which means Mr. John L. Lewis) has just levied a $2 special assessment on its members to raise a fund for "political use." It is estimated that this will amount to about $1,000,000. Its collection through the "check off" will be automatic. Under the closed-shop arrangement it will be taken out of the wages of the miners by the corporations and turned over to the union, which means Mr. Lewis. Wholly aside from other considerations, this is a demonstration of power which no other man in the country is in position to match.

IT seems too much power for one man to have. It is a power so common Highlighted by the gay and amusing events in a home where everyone does as he pleases, Universal's comedy drama, "The Family Next Door," opens today at the Ritz Theatre.

A story as thrill-packed as the wild Mexican back country against which it takes place is told in the latest "Hopalong Cassidy" action drama, "In Old Mexico," which comes tonight to the Ritz Theatre. William Boyd, George Hayes and Russell Hayden play the chief roles in a Clarence E. Mulford story, which for excitement, romance and suspense has not been equalled in a long time.

BRISTOL THEATRE

A glorious, rousing story of three loyal brothers who embark on a gallant adventure in the French Foreign Legion roared into town last night.

It is Paramount's vivid, new excitement-filled production of "Beau Geste," co-starring Gary Cooper, Ray Milland and Robert Preston, and it was received with electric enthusiasm as it was shown to local audiences for the first time at the Bristol Theatre.

The three stars of "Beau Geste" are seen as the brothers "Geste," a trio whose loyalty burns brightly through desperate battles with desert tribes.

DELICIOUS DOUBLE DECKER

For light lunching these lazy Indian Summer days, why don't you serve quick and easy combination sandwich plates? They take just a short time to prepare and make mighty good main course eating. For lunch today try a chipped beef, bacon and tomato sandwich garnished with crisp little curls of celery, glossy brown ripe mission olives and a heaping mound of golden potato chips. It's simple when you do it so:

CHIPPED BEEF, BACON AND TOMATO SANDWICH

To prevent curling, notch edges of—12 slices bacon.

Separate—

1 small jar chipped beef.

Grill bacon and chipped beef together until crisp, having the beef placed in between the rows of bacon so the beef may broil in the bacon fat.

Toast on one side—

18 slices bread, 1/4 inch thick.

Spread untoasted sides with a thin layer of—

Butter

then with a very thin layer of—

Prepared brown or yellow mustard.

On each of the untoasted sides of 6 slices of bread, place two strips of bacon and enough chipped beef to cover.

Top with slices of toast, placing the untoasted sides down.

Arrange a layer of sliced tomatoes and a leaf of lettuce on each, then top with three slices of toast. Cut diagonally and serve. (Serves 6.)

2 tomatoes.

Arrange a layer of sliced tomatoes and a leaf of lettuce on each, then top with three slices of toast. Cut diagonally and serve. (Serves 6.)

Arrange in cups of crisp lettuce and sprinkle with paprika. (Serves 6.)

Combine and mix thoroughly—

3 cups shredded cabbage
1 green pepper, shredded
1/2 cup (10 slices) fresh cucumber
pickle, chopped

1 tablespoon grated onion
1 teaspoon sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
4 tablespoons mayonnaise.

Arrange in cups of crisp lettuce and sprinkle with paprika. (Serves 6.)

HOT OPEN CHEESE SANDWICH

Trim crusts from thick slices of—Bread.

Arrange on top of bread slices of—

American cheese.

Spread over cheese a layer of—

Chili sauce.

Cover with slices of uncooked—

Bacon.

Broil very slowly until cheese is melted and the bacon crisp. Serve immediately. Garnish with fresh cucumber pickle and ripe mission olives.

Note: Cut bacon longer than sandwich to allow for shrinkage in cooking. Also notch edges of bacon with sharp knife before cooking to prevent curling.

With this luscious snappy supper sandwich, plan to serve a stout substantial cold slaw salad topped up with slices of fresh cucumber pickle. You're sure to savor the fine home-spun flavor of these country style pickles. They taste just like the bread and butter pickles your own grandmother used to keep in a big iron stone crock on the white-washed shelf under her cellar stairs. Chopped in this cold slaw salad they surely add a world of fine flavor:

purchase the milk which is given to undernourished pupils in the Doylestown schools during school hours.

The veterans decided, at a meeting held on Tuesday evening, to contribute the sum of $8 a month to buy the milk for children, who are given it under the direction of Mrs. Thelma Brudenell, school nurse.

Mrs. Brudenell reported that at the present time there are only three children in school receiving milk, but that the work does not really get under way until December and January.

"Most of the children come to school rather well fed and nourished because of the Summer vacation period, but about December and January the health of the undernourished begins to wane and it is necessary to give them rations of milk," said Mrs. Brudenell.

ST. FRANCIS MIDGETS CONQUER HILLCREEK

St. Francis Midgets conquered the Hillcreek Midgets by the score of 13 to 0. Hillcreek won the toss-up and St. Francis held their rivals for four downs and then took the ball in three plays made a first down.

Brilliant runs by E. Calandra and hard blocking and interference by the rest of the team slowly ate up the ground to Hillcreek's goal. Several times St. Francis failed to get first down and there was a lull in the march but as soon as St. Francis got the ball they started slugging at the Hillcreek line until finally Dugan took the ball for a touchdown. Then Golden took the ball through center for the conversion.

St. Francis again booted the ball to Hillcreek and stopped the receiver before he had made much gain. St. Francis held the line for four downs and took the ball and started up the field but a bad thing occurred, someone fumbled, and St. Francis had to hold back the desperate Hillcreek team, but they held on bravely and soon had the ball and this time they really went to town and before long were threatening Hillcreek's goal line. The Hillcreeks saw defeat staring them in the eyes and tried to hold the powerful St. Francis team but it was all in vain for St. Francis, with Golden carrying the ball, went over for the second touchdown of the game. This soon took the spirit out of the Hillcreek team and the game ended without any further scoring.

COMMUNICATION

Ritter Avenue,
Bristol R. D. No. 2,
November 11, 1939.

Editor Courier:

I have just returned from Bristol's Armistice Day Parade and think the Legion certainly put on a good show. It is not for me to judge the different organizations in line, but I certainly would like to judge the people who stood by and saw the parade pass. Where I stood, just opposite the Bristol Theatre, I saw two others besides myself salute the colors as they went by. My two sons, both married, saw it pass along Mill street, near the Grand Theatre, and they saw seven, counting themselves, salute. This included two boy scouts. Some patriotism, I'll say. Don't you think that was a poor showing for the number of a parade?

Yours truly,

opinions or who occupied state jobs during the Earle yesterday's lengthy examination by opposing counsel.

All of the Commonwealth's witnesses, excepting Margiotti, appeared in court for the opening day of the trial. Lawrence, seated at the counsel table, appeared at ease during the tedious questioning of prospective jurors.

Seven Democrats and seven Republicans were excused before the jury was completed late in the afternoon. Philip Peterhoff, first juror chosen, will serve as foreman. He is a native of Williamstown and unemployed.

Other jurors selected were: Thelma M. Boyer, stenographer; Maude E. Cover, grocer, Middletown; Mary Koons, housewife; Rose Rogers, supervisor; John H. Parthemore, patternmaker; Laura Palmer, housewife; Donaldson Banks, negro minister; Mrs. Helen Kauffman, housewife; Charles Hardy, retired; William M. Goodyear, former railroad worker; and Wesley Orndorff, laborer.

Named as alternates were: Fred Rinenour, florist, and Mary Braxton, housewife.

Sixteen special deputy sheriffs were sworn in to guard the jury for the duration of the trial. The jury was quartered at a midtown hotel located less than a block from the Court House.

J. Paul Rupp, Republican, and former Dauphin County treasurer, joined defense attorneys Oliver K. Eaton, Pittsburgh, and J. Dress Pannell, Harrisburg, and examined each of the prospective jurors.
